

November 1, 2024

4:30-6:30 pm

If you own, operate or dream of farming
- big or small, row crop, specialty or livestock - we will gather for learning and laughter!

Network with other female landowners/operators, share experiences and offer support.

Speaker: Kelly Burke

Topic: An Empowering Journey

Host Venue: Emerald Acres

Kelly is an entrepreneur in multiple industries - together with her husband, she runs a 160-acre farm with an equine boarding facility and tillable acreage.

As a founder and board member at Kifcure, an industrial hemp agricultural company, she champions the development of a widely misunderstood industry. Kelly is also the CEO of Emerald Acres, which operates two sustainability-focused bar & private events venues, and Razbit, a Website & Software Development agency. Kelly loves yoga, running, golf and throwing a good party! Her goal is to remain grateful and curious and to lift up those around her!

Light refreshments will be served
One Complimentary Beverage Per Person
No Charge!

Registration Required
